Before beginning the process, a candidate needs to meet certain legal and administrative criteria set by the Hungarian government. Driving laws in Hungary strictly control who is permitted to hold a local license.

- Residency Status: Non-Hungarian people need to hold a valid Hungarian address card (lakcímkártya) and show legal residency in the country for a minimum of 185 days per year.
- Age Requirements: The basic age to obtain a Category B (traveler cars and truck) license is 17 years of ages, though applicants can begin theoretical training at 16 years and 6 months.
- Medical Fitness: Every candidate needs to pass a fundamental medical checkup to guarantee physical and psychological physical fitness for driving.

2. The Step-by-Step Process

Getting a Hungarian driving license involves a structured series of medical checks, theoretical education, practical training, and main testing.

Step 1: Obtain a Medical Certificate

The journey starts at a local family doctor (háziorvos). The medical professional will conduct a standard medical examination-- examining vision, hearing, cardiovascular health, and general case history.

- Cost: Approximately 7,000 to 10,000 HUF.
- Outcome: A signed medical certificate validating fitness to drive, which should exist to the driving school.

Step 2: Enroll in a Driving School (Autósiskola)

Picking a licensed driving school is necessary. While numerous schools cater primarily to Hungarian speakers, several organizations in Budapest and major cities use courses taught entirely in English.

Step 3: Complete the Theoretical Course and Exam

Theoretical training covers traffic policies, road indications, and vehicle mechanics.

- Format: Can frequently be finished online through e-learning modules or through class lectures (minimum 28 hours for Category B).
- The Exam: A computerized multiple-choice test including 55 questions administered by the Government Office (Kormányablak). A minimum of 65 out of 75 points is needed to pass.

Step 4: Complete Practical Driving Lessons

Upon passing the theory examination, the practical stage starts. Students need to complete a mandatory number of driving hours together with a licensed trainer.

- Minimum Hours: 30 hours of driving (plus driving in traffic, during the night, and on highways).
- Range Requirement: A minimum driving range of 580 kilometers need to be collected.

Step 5: Pass the Practical Driving Exam

The last difficulty is the practical driving test, carried out in the presence of an official inspector from the federal government transport authority. The test examines lorry control, traffic awareness, and adherence to road rules.
