Not all questions bring equivalent weight. Certain tasks contribute points to multiple areas.

- Write from Dictation (Listening & & Writing): This is probably the most crucial task on the whole test. Practice listening to sentences and composing them down with 100% spelling precision.
- Reading Fill in the Blanks (Reading & & Writing): Focus heavily on junctions (words that frequently go together) and grammar rules.
- Sum Up Spoken Text & & Written Text: Practice condensing a paragraph or a lecture into a single, grammatically appropriate sentence using basic templates.

Days 5 & & 6: Timed Practice & & Endurance Training

- Imitate Real Test Conditions: Take a minimum of two full-length, timed mock tests back-to-back without pausing. This constructs the mental stamina needed for a grueling 2-hour computer system examination.
- Record and Review: Record speaking responses and listen back critically. Are there long stops briefly? Is the modulation natural? Does the microphone get breathing sounds? Adjust microphone placement appropriately.

- Spelling counts (US vs. UK English): Stick to one spelling convention throughout the test (either American or British). Mixing them up can activate spelling errors in the automated scoring system.
- Handle your time ruthlessly: The Reading section is infamously challenging to end up on time. If stuck on a challenging multiple-choice concern, guess the response quickly and proceed to safeguard time for higher-value fill-in-the-blank concerns.
- Capitalization and Punctuation Matter: In composing jobs, forgetting a period at the end of a sentence or missing a capital letter at the start results in automated point deductions.
