Plumber Burlington MA Licensed Insured Master Plumber MP-15978 When hiring a plumber in Burlington, MA, confirming that the contractor holds a valid Massachusetts plumbing license is one of the most important steps in protecting against both financial and legal risk. Unlicensed plumbing work in Massachusetts creates homeowner exposure that can surface during home sales, insurance claims, or plumber Burlington MA building inspections, making the initial savings from hiring an unlicensed contractor potentially very expensive in the long run. Damaso Plumbing and Heating Inc holds Massachusetts Master Plumber license number MP-15978, making every job the company performs in Burlington a licensed, code-compliant installation or repair. Beyond the Massachusetts Master Plumber license, Damaso Plumbing and Heating Inc holds three additional professional licenses: Oil Burner Technician license number BU-130868, Master Plumber NH license number 2210328, and Gas Fitter NH license number GF2212247. These credentials cover the full range of plumbing and heating work that Burlington area homes and businesses require, including oil burner service, gas line installation, and work in New Hampshire for customers with properties on both sides of the state line. Massachusetts requires that plumbing work be performed by or under the direct supervision of a licensed master plumber, and permits are required for most significant plumbing installations. Damaso Plumbing and Heating Inc handles permit applications as a standard part of the service for work that requires inspection, ensuring compliance from the paperwork side as well as the workmanship side.
