A Deep Dive into the Bonus Rounds

The main attraction of Crazy Time isn't just the numbered sectors-- it's the four elaborate perk video games. Experiencing these in the demonstration mode is necessary because each operates on a totally various principle:

1. Coin Flip

This is the most frequent bonus round. A coin with a red side and a blue side is flipped by a maker. Each side is appointed a random multiplier before the flip. Whichever side lands deal with up awards the player that multiplier.

2. Cash Hunt

Imagine a giant shooting gallery screen featuring 108 random multipliers concealed behind different symbols (like a cactus, a target, or a constable's badge). The gamer utilizes a virtual crosshair to aim and shoot at a symbol, revealing the multiplier hidden behind it.

3. Pachinko

Inspired by the standard Japanese arcade game, this round features an enormous wall filled with pegs. The host drops a puck from the top, and it bounces down arbitrarily until it lands in among the slots at the bottom, each including a multiplier. If the puck lands on a "Double," all multipliers on the board double, and the puck is dropped once again.

4. Crazy Time

This is the ultimate benefit round, accessed through a red door behind the main wheel. Gamers are transported into a dynamic, virtual world including play crazy time free guide an enormous, colorful wheel with 64 sectors and 3 flappers (Green, Blue, and Yellow). Gamers choose their flapper. The wheel spins, and whatever multiplier it stops on is granted. If it hits "Double" or "Triple," all multipliers increase, and the wheel spins once again-- scaling as much as an incredible 20,000 x max win.
